Reasons for Allowance

1. Claims 1-10 are allowed.
2. This is examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Regarding claims 1-10, the prior art, either singularly or in combination, does not teach or suggest a document reading device comprising:

"...a guide member, formed in a predetermined inclination angle with respect to a flat-plate face of the support means, which serves as a guide face for guiding the document to the reading position and wherein the optical reading means detects a leading end position, in a transport direction, of the guide member, and the predetermined reading position is set within a range of predetermined distance in a transport direction from the leading end position, wherein the predetermined distance is known beforehand to be free from stains on said support member caused by a contact with the document."

The features identified, in combination with other claim limitations, are neither suggested nor discussed by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
